

Commercial area

Our Commercial Department offers advisory services from perspective advisory companies, with particular emphasis on counseling, negotiation, drafting and execution of contracts themselves of market activity.

Our services can be found:

- Advising, drafting and interpretation of commercial contracts
- Preparation of commercial contracts
- Advice on various commercial transactions (purchase, supply, rental, leasing, service delivery)
- Associations and participation in commercial activities contracts (agreements shareholders, silent participation, civil societies)
- Contract of guarantee, such as bond, mortgage, surety and pledge
- Contract Financing
- Sponsorship and sponsorship contracts

Corporate area

Our Department takes a comprehensive advice of the (civil society or commercial) and its partners and managers to ensure proper operation of its structure and activity . Among others, we address issues such as:

- Incorporation of companies and other entities (commercial, civil, branches, EIG, temporary joint company) as well as modifications and rearrangements of the same (fusion division, transformation, dissolution and liquidation)
- Legalization of new businesses
- Advice on the legality of the calls, agreements and decisions that general meetings or administrative bodies are adopted in Societies
- Legal advice and corporate bodies to intervene in the drafting and preparation of minutes and certifications of the agreements and the Act and Board Certified Partner generates for the approval of the Accounts Year, and the corresponding agreements concerning amendments statutory (changes of name, address, voting rights, composition of the governing bodies ...)
- Preparation and presentation of financial statements of Tanks companies' commercial, along with the Certificate of the General Meeting, with the Registry Commercial for publication.
- Monitoring and control of the charges due.

- Legalization of mandatory corporate books: Minute Books and Books Registration Partners.
- Supplementation of Books monitoring and controlling their legality
- Feasibility studies for business projects
- Purchase of stocks and shares.
- Procedures deed at the Mercantile Registry.

Bankruptcy area

In times of corporate crisis, our professional team in legal subjects, business, economic and commercial examines the whole issue of business difficulties, analyzing accounting, contracts with creditors, suppliers, conditions and employment status of workers to plan a strategy based on whether there is the possibility of continuity or insolvency is imminent.

There is also good support when he finds that one of its customers is in a situation of bankruptcy. The tasks we offer, among others are:

- Consulting study of company documents and making Economic and productive report.
- Conducting internal audits
- Study and preparation of all documentation required for the application bankruptcy proceedings
- Advising on the necessary steps for recovery of VAT
- Consultations with the Inland Revenue for realization of deadlines for applications VAT recovery
- Preparation and submission of written modification to the tax bases Taxable for VAT purposes, because of competition
- Counseling and / or manufacture of corrective invoices
- Making representations to the insolvent company and the issue remission of corrective invoices
- Preparation of Certified Manager of acknowledgment of debt

Foundations and Associations

Given the strong growth in social and economic activity in our society foundations and non-profit associations, our Commercial Department offers comprehensive advice on issues such as:

- Preparation of the constituent acts
- Processing of enrollment in public records
- Development of the statutes, internal rules of operation and agreements governing bodies of the entities
- Advice on its services and special operations
- Advice and drafting of agreements with other entities and creation of federations or other supra-associative models
- Advice and processing of the dissolution and liquidation of the entity